New managers for two care homes

THE town's elderly care sector is to get a welcome jobs boost with locally-based Agincare taking over two homes in Weymouth Avenue.

Around half a million pounds will be spent bringing the buildings up to date and creating between 30 and 40 new jobs.

One of the homes, Greenbushes, has been closed for more than a year. The other property, Avenue House, remains open as a care home and has now been re-named Badbury Care Home. Both had been run by administrators after the previous owners ran into financial difficulties.

Improvements have already been made to Badbury Care Home with new residents moving in this week.

The neighbouring property, immediately to the south, will be extensively re-furbished, re-named Maumbury

House and re-opened as a nursing home later in the year.

"We're likely to create at least 35 jobs once the work is completed, it will depend on the final bed places," said company chief executive Raina Summerson.

"It looked like the Marie Celeste when we first went to Greenbushes; everything was just abandoned," she said. "But once the work is completed it will make a lovely building."

Agincare started in the Weymouth area in the mid-1980s and now has around 50 sites, mainly in Dorset, Kent and the Swindon area.

"To be honest we weren't really interested to begin with. We thought we had enough properties in and around Weymouth but the agents kept calling us so eventually we came and had a look and thought we would give it a go," she said.

"They are lovely old buildings and we thought in the end that we could do a lot with them."

In time the company is also likely to base the administration of its home care business at the Weymouth Avenue site.

Agincare also boasts an Admiral Nurse on site, Jo Palmer, one of the few companies in the area to employ one of the specialists, support people with dementia.

Ms Summerson, a former homes inspector who is involved with the care sector at national level, says the company is keen to get involved with the community in Dorchester

"We will also be planning an open day for the community and would welcome people to come and have a look around."

Badbury will be managed by Melanie Hawker who has been at the home for almost 20 years and says she is looking forward to seeing the improvements taking shape over the coming weeks.

Badbury is registered for 33 beds and the adjoining property, Greenbushes, may have to be re-registered in view of the year-long closure and planned works, but has the potential for an additional 45 beds. When it shut in December 2013 almost 30 staff were made redundant.

Joint administrators Bob Maxwell and Julie Palmer from Begbies Traynor in Leeds appointed Goldencare Future Management from Doncaster to run the businesses while a buyer was sought for the businesses with Avenue House, as it was known until three weeks ago, remaining open throughout.

MARJORIE Mulrooney is a local artist making new work and exploring experimental techniques and media. She studied Fine Art at Plymouth University and the University College of London and spent many years working and teaching in the UK, Europe and Sultanate of Oman. She settled in Dorset two years ago with her husband Hugh after running life-drawing workshops in France for eight years.

Megan Dunford was born and raised in Dorset and is the exhibitions assistant at Bridport Arts Centre. She studied a BTec Diploma Foundation in Art and Technology at Somerset College before studying a Fine Art Painting Degree in Cardiff. Megan has since moved back to Dorset where she works for several local arts organisations.

They are currently joint curating an exhibition called 'CRE8' which will feature work from a group of eight women artists in West Dorset and will be on display at the Chapel in the Garden on east Street.

● WHAT inspired you to work in art?

Marjory: I have always been fascinated by the materials used in making art. From the age of eight when I was given my first 'real' box of paints - a lovely black metal box containing perfect little pans of watercolour with mysterious names like 'Rose Madder', 'Gamboge' and 'Viridian' - one of the main starting points for any work has been the material itself. In the past year, I have made pieces which have explored the rich, reflective qualities of graphite. So instead of using it as a pencil, I have made graphite itself the subject of the works, creating abstract, textural images. I am currently looking at other non-traditional materials and will be showing works made from tea bags, string and fishing line in forthcoming exhibitions.

Megan: Curating is becoming more and more of a fascination and a passion for me, so to be able to put on such an interesting exhibition at the Chapel in the Garden, with such an interesting mix of artists is brilliant! My work changes all the time, but I am mainly interested in abstract colour in the landscape and the contrast of surfaces/ materials next to each other. For this exhibition at the Chapel I will be making some new work that reflects the Women of the Wildcat Strike of 1912 and the struggle they had to go through to fight for their rights as Women.

● COULD you tell me more about the upcoming exhibition 'CRE8'?

Marjory: This show grew out of an involvement with the group of women who decided to recreate photographs taken in 1912 of the women workers at Gundry's who went on strike in protest at their wages being cut. They were among the first women in Britain to take action in order to better their working lot and the intention is to re-enact their protest on Saturday, February 14th starting in Bucky Doo Square and marching to the spot where they were photographed 103 years ago.

Megan and I will be among those taking part in the march as well as the exhibition, which is another way of celebrating the work of artists living and working in the Bridport area, who also happen to be women.

In a way it is a tribute to those women of 1912 who were such strong role models. There is much more information on the Bridport Wildcats - as they are known - online. Just google Bridport Wildcats. The photographs will be taken by Rachel Dunford who will also be showing work in the exhibition.

● WHAT other art based projects have you done?

Megan: I also work freelance as a visual art promoter and have worked on events such as Dorset Art Weeks, Dorset Art Fair and Bridport Open Studios. 'CRE8' is the first show I have curated without backing from an organisation or event, so very exciting and daunting.

Marjory: I have shown work in a number of countries including Oman, where I spent seven years working and teaching, and in France where I also ran life-drawing workshops for eight years. On returning to the UK, we settled in Penzance, Cornwall, where I showed work with the St Ives Society of Artists and in other gallery shows before moving to Bridport in May 2013. I collaborated in a group show at the Chapel in the Garden with Megan and three other artists in August 2014 as part of Bridport Open Studios.

● BESIDES the upcoming exhibition, are you currently working on any other events and exhibitions?

Megan: I have so many ideas for exhibitions or projects later this year, but nothing set in stone yet!

Marjory: I will be showing work in the foyer of the arts centre in June/July 2015, it will be a selection of my most recent works on paper and will be called 'Out of Line'.

● IF you could live your life again, what would you be?

Marjory: I have worked as a teacher in a number of countries besides the UK - mainly in Bulgaria, Germany and the Sultanate of Oman. If I hadn't become an artist I would have loved to be a musician. Musicians are welcomed wherever they go and I always regret that I never had an opportunity to learn to play an instrument. Of course if you are a singer you can travel light as you carry your instrument with you. That must be the best of all. However, I always wanted to be an artist and am perfectly happy to be able to share what I do with others. It never gets easier though!

Megan: I still feel like I have the rest of my life ahead of me as I am not yet 26. I agree with Marjory to be a musician would be fun, if not difficult at times. However if I had to start again, I would like to be born in a different country, somewhere along a warm coast in the Mediterranean. I love being outdoors and by the sea so this would suit me perfectly.

● WHAT is the one thing you like most about working with art?

Megan: It is never boring and you are always changing, adapting and learning.

'CRE8' will be at the Chapel in the Garden, East Street, from Tuesday, February 10th to Saturday, February 15th from 10am to 4pm and Sunday, February 15th from 12noon to 4pm. Visit www.cre8dorset.wordpress.com for more details.

DWP called to account by furious residents

WEYMOUTH & Portland is demanding that Dorset Waste Partnership bosses take full responsibility for the "mismanagement" of a new rubbish collection system.

Furious residents swamped councillors with complaints about poor delivery of containers, poor collection of redundant containers, missed collections and uncollected rubbish piling up in streets.

Now a meeting of Weymouth & Portland full council has overwhelmingly voted 27-1 with two abstentions to approve a Notice of Motion calling on DWP to explain to residents how they are going to deal with complaints and improve all levels of the rubbish collection service.

The motion concludes: "We further ask that the senior management team (of DWP) accepts responsibility and is held accountable for the gross errors in funding estimates, and seek reassurances of more robust budget estimates in the future."

DWP chairman Tony Alford immediately approached The View after the meeting to say they were already taking action to deal with complaints and make improvements.

He added that DWP had "a lot of work going on" and was "working hard to make things better" and to ensure confidence in DWP service delivery to all its partners including Weymouth and Portland.

Councillor Penny McCartney, who proposed the Notice of Motion, had earlier told colleagues she had "no faith" in the service and that there was a need "to restore some sort of public confidence in DWP" which should be held accountable for what had happened.

She cited bins not being collected, other bins just dumped, damage to property and disgusted residents reduced to banding together to try and tackle rubbish problems, adding that it was "simply not acceptable" and that if it had been a private company involved then senior management would have been made accountable.

She added: "Flytipping is a big issue on Portland and I don't want to see it get worse."

Councillor Mike Byatt said Weymouth and Portland, like other local authorities, was under "considerable financial pressure", public confidence could not be underestimated and there was a need to engage with DWP "to ensure a sound service is delivered together with proper financial management".

He added that Weymouth & Portland could not properly plan its financial future when it suddenly had to meet an extra £200,000 bill because DWP had overspent by more than £2 million.

Councillor Ian Roebuck said he had "no sympathy" with DWP's over-budgeting but it was false to suggest the whole problem was its management because DWP had strong connections with Dorset County Council.

Demanding DWP be accountable was "a knee-jerk reaction", he said, adding that the issue was to get a better service, hence the review to try and achieve that especially as DWP financial difficulties were known as long ago as February 2014.

Councillor Mike Goodman said: "We, as a council, should take the ultimate responsibility when things go wrong like this".

He added that members now knew there were four separate investigations going on into what went wrong and to criticise officers they had political oversight for "I find really quite shaming".

Councillor Paul Kimber said there had been seven to eight weeks of "solid daily complaints about rubbish not being picked up" and Weymouth & Portland having to pay an extra £200,000 meant "someone somewhere is going to get increasingly bad services", so he backed the Motion.

Councillor Sandy West said: "It is the biggest problem we have got. I understand that with any business there is a bedding in period, but the changeover shouldn't really have been a problem. The man at the top should take responsibility."

Sharper words came from Councillor Ray Nowak who said: "We have been sold a pup."

He said there were poor finances and weak management structures, so it was good to know a review was underway and DWP needed to be given notice that an improved on-budget service was to be welcomed.

Mr Nowak said they should be telling DWP to "get your act together" and that "if we don't get value for money then look at others who can provide value for money".

Councillor Ian Bruce said: "The public are clearly concerned that something has gone wrong and that something is done to sort it out. I am very concerned that we have a system of control that doesn't work."

Antiques evening to raise funds for CAB

An evening with an antiques expert in February will raise money for the Dorchester and Sherborne Citizens' Advice Bureau.

Antiques expert Richard Bromell will be sharing some of his inside knowledge at The Digby Hall in Hounds Street, Sherborne, next Thursday, February 12th at 7pm.

Richard Bromell is a director of Charterhouse auction house in Sherborne with 30 years' experience in antiques.

All proceeds from the evening will go to the bureau to help it continue to offer free and independent advice to people facing problems including housing, employment, benefits and debt issues.

Bureau manager Daniel Cadisch said: "This promises to be a great evening. Richard Bromell is an entertaining speaker with a wealth of experience and knowledge.

"We are all extremely grateful to him for supporting the bureau in this way and hope that people will come along and enjoy the evening.

"They will find out more about the world of antiques and be helping the CAB continue its vital work in this area.

"The bureau is a charity and depends on fundraising, grants and donations so that we can always be there for anyone who turns to us for help."

Tickets are £5 in advance or £6 at the door and include a glass of wine and nibbles. They are available at the CAB offices at 1 Acland Road in Dorchester, The Manor House, Sherborne, and from the Tourist Information Centres.

Local petition calls for Dorford Centre crossing

TOWN councillors have backed a local petition calling for a pedestrian crossing in Bridport Road near the Dorford Centre. More than 1,500 people visited the centre, many crossing from the public car park on the opposite side of the road.

The only alternative route, rather than directly across the road, is by using pedestrian crossings, towards the town centre and then over three zebra crossings to get around the roundabout and back up the other side of Bridport Road.

MP asks for new armed forces commemoration

Richard Drax, MP for South Dorset today asked the prime minister whether there would be any commemoration of the armed forces' service in Afghanistan.

Speaking at prime minister's questions, the MP asked, "I know that I do not need to remind the House that 453 members of our armed forces lost their lives in Afghanistan ... and many, many more were wounded, some seriously... and, although we have brought most of our troops home, the 400 men and women of 2 Rifles are still serving with great distinction in Kabul in support of government forces.

"Would my Right Honourable friend agree with me that it's time we recognised the efforts of ALL those who served in this war with a commemorative event?"

Prime minister David Cameron replied: "I very much agree with my honourable friend.

"All British combat troops left Afghanistan by the end of last year, fulfilling the commitment that I made almost five years ago.

"On Monday, my Right Honourable friend, the Defence Secretary welcomed to parliament the final homecoming parade of our troops deployed in Afghanistan, and today, I am pleased to announce that we will hold a special service of commemoration in St Paul's cathedral and a military parade on the 13th March to mark the end of combat operations in Afghanistan.

"I believe, Mr Speaker, it is a fitting moment to pay tribute to the extraordinary contribution made by our armed forces in Afghanistan over 13 years."

"I am delighted to hear that the government will be thanking our brave men and women so publicly and properly," said Mr Drax.

"They deserve our profoundest thanks."

Best of Dorset 2015 launched

BUSINESSES were given their first glimpse of the 2015 Best of Dorset show when its official trade launch was held at Weymouth Pavilion.

"Not only is it important that the public knows what businesses have to offer but that fellow businesses do as well."

Weymouth & Portland events manager, Steve Davies, said: "On the day there will be a full programme of entertainment including WOW Youth Musical Theatre, Let's Dance, Dorset for Singing, Ed Hintz and the Asda George fashion show.

"We usually have at least 1,500 visitors during the day and the place is packed with people seeing what Dorset has to offer throughout the year."

Pavilion manager Phil Say said: "The event is the annual shop window for leisure and tourism businesses in the area, but it also marks the start of the season for a town which relies heavily on tourism.

"Pavilion footfall and tickets are both up a quarter for winter 2014-2015 against winter 2013-2014 and I am sure that other businesses will be wanting to showcase how well they are doing as well."

"The Pavilion already has 14 weddings booked for this year and six for 2016 while the theatre is attracting big names such as Des O'Connor, Jethro and Russell Watson.

The Best of Dorset show is a free event open from 11.00am to 4.00pm on March 22nd and popular features will include the tall ship Pelican, the Nothe Fort re-enactment group, Dorset volunteer group and the Avon Beauty bus. There will also be lots of fun for youngsters with Captain Stupid the clown.

The theme for the event is 'Sport and Wellbeing' and it will show some of the area's great sports events and challenges which will be taking place in and around Weymouth and Portland throughout the year.

There will also be information on many local sports-activity-event providers and opportunities to take part in many fun runs, bike rides, and water sports within the many cycle paths, bridleways, coast paths, beaches and bays throughout Dorset.

Anyone who would like to book a space at the show should contact Weymouth and Portland events officer Charlotte Sheppard on 01305 838512.

Pride of Lions' charity fundraising

Dorchester Lions have presented a series of cheques after raising the money by collections in the town centre and at Tesco.

Dorchester Disabled Club received £250 with £400 being divided between other local organisations and charities.

Cheques for £600 have also been presented to the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and the west Dorset branch of Diabetes UK.

More than £60 has been raised by a bottle coin collection at the Poet Laureate where the cheques were presented during a club evening.

That money will be used to buy more plastic containers which individuals can use to put in their fridges containing details of the medicines they take – making it easier and quicker for the emergency services in the event of an incident in the home.

The 'Message in a Bottle' containers can be picked up, for free, at many GP surgeries and pharmacies.

Lions members are now starting to organise the annual Fun Run, due to take place this year on Sunday, May 10th.

Further information about the Lions, including becoming a member, can be found by calling 0845 833 2836 or emailing info@lionsdorchester.org.uk.

DWP new collection 'disaster'

A THOROUGH review is to be carried out into what went wrong when a new rubbish collection for 50,000 homes was rolled out in the Weymouth and Portland area.

Parts of the Dorset Waste Partnership scheme were labelled "a disaster" by councillors when some bins went uncollected and rubbish piled up in the streets.

Now a meeting of Weymouth and Portland council's scrutiny committee has backed a review of the roll-out and operation of the new scheme, what lessons can be learnt and how the service can be improved in the future.

The review will look at what the current Weymouth and Portland waste and recycling collection situation is, what can be learnt from the experience, whether outstanding issues remain and, if so, what actions are needed to resolve them.

The meeting was told by communities director Kate Ryan that three countywide reviews of DWP were already underway.

Councillor Mark Tewkesbury said: "I think we owe it to the residents of Weymouth and Portland that we do a scrutiny."

And Councillor Bill White said the DWP overspend was costing councils.

Weymouth and Portland was "at its wits end financially" yet still had to find an extra £200,000. Residents' concerns had to be answered, he said.

Chairman Councillor Gill Taylor said: "I would like to get to the bottom of some of the stories. Ninety percent of the collection seems to have been OK which is at variance with what is being claimed in some press.

"We need to look at what went right and what went wrong and find a way forward."

Councillor Pam Nixon said: "We read all the bad stories, all the negative news, but in my ward (Wey Valley) I have not been inundated with calls. In all I have only had about five complaints. I do appreciate that other areas have had their problems."

Councillor Joy Stanley said part of the problem was that the council had given wrong information to DWP.

He told The View after the meeting: "We fully understand members' concerns about the issues we had with the roll-out in Weymouth and Portland. We are very sorry. What happened was deeply regrettable and we look forward to working with the review requested.

"The service in Weymouth and Portland has now bedded in and there was a 56.1 percent recycling level for December 2014, well up on the 37.5 percent for 2013-2014 as a whole.

"That is a tremendous result and I would like to thank residents for the positive and enthusiastic way they have responded.

"We hope to increase that recycling level to 68 percent by 2019 which is the most ambitious target in the UK."

Mrs Taylor said later: "Anyone still experiencing collection problems should get in touch with DWP.

"But I want people to get in touch with me about their experiences – good or bad – for the review. They can reach me on 01305-779936."

Martyrs' tree up for official registration

DORSET'S Tolpuddle Martyrs' tree could be officially registered as one of the country's most important specimens.

It was under the tree in 1834 that six agricultural labourers formed the first trades union in Britain to bargain for better pay and working conditions under the leadership of George Loveless. The six leaders of the union were arrested and sentenced to seven years' transportation. A massive protest swept across the country. Thousands of people marched through London and many more organised petitions and protest meetings to demand their freedom.

■ TOLPUDDLE Martyrs' tree

The call for a national register comes from the Woodland Trust and Country Living magazine. It says that while woodlands are listed individual trees have no means of recognition beyond having a Tree Protection Order.

Jill Butler, ancient tree specialist at the Woodland Trust said: "Our campaign is a call to create a formal register of nationally important trees like the Tolpuddle Martyrs' Tree.

"It would consist of trees that meet an agreed set of criteria, recognising their historical, ecological and/or cultural value, and would offer a useful tool for planners and landowners alike."

The Martyr's tree has undergone surgery and had branch supports installed recently, by specialists to try and prolong its life.

Business start up support helps local printer

NEW enterprise Wyke Print Solutions, Weymouth, has completed its biggest contract to date thanks to a famous old Dorset brewery and a business support service.

The fledgling company produced two huge murals to be placed in the refurbished offices of Palmers' brewery in Bridport.

The contract has given the new firm a real boost and its owner has credited WSX's Driving Urban Enterprise project with helping him prosper.

The support service aims to help new businesses into profit by offering practical help and by running training courses and events.

Wyke Print Solutions was formed by Kevin Swindell just over a year ago and works across all areas of design and print.

Kevin said WSX's staff had helped guide him and had organised networking events and business clubs at which he has been a regular and where he has learned a great deal.

He said: "I worked in the print industry for 25 years before I was made redundant then set up on my own.

"I went to lots of networking events, but WSX's were specifically for new businesses and so were able to provide lots of practical help for people in my position.

"I attend the 'New in Business Club' where like-minded people go and chat about things, and there are speakers who are very interesting.

"The murals for Palmers brewery are very big and I was able to offer advice about what would work best and then have them installed.

"My business is going well and I'd advise anyone starting out to get in touch with WSX to see if they can help."

Christine Collins, an enterprise adviser from WSX, said: "Wyke Print Solutions is a wonderful success story and we're delighted to have been able to assist Kevin.

"We run training and monthly club events and welcome interest from new businesses and those thinking of starting one. All our services are free."

Wayne Causley, Palmers' company surveyor, said: "Palmers is a long established company and we are very proud of our heritage.

"Within the office refurbishment we wanted to show some of our history but in a modern way.

"The murals have achieved this fantastically well.

"We always try to work with local companies where possible and are very happy to have been involved with a start-up business such as WPS."

Kevin worked with Nik Southorn, a designer from PGandP, chartered quantity surveyors and cost consultants

Beerex sell-out success

D O R C H E S T E R

Beerex is, once again, a sell-out success with every ticket snapped up for the four sessions this Friday and Saturday.

Regulars were quick off the mark when ticket sales opened on New Year's Day.

The festival, on Friday February 6th and 7th in the Corn Exchange, is jointly organised by West Dorset Campaign for Real Ale (CAMRA) and Dorchester Round Table.

Over 80 ales and around a dozen ciders will be on offer with lunchtime and evening sessions. A handful of tickets remain for Saturday only.

The event is sponsored by Bridport brewery Palmers.

A festival raffle will take place at each session which supports the Round Table's 'Children's Wish Appeal' which raises money to make terminally and seriously ill children's dreams come true.

Real food survey with £50 prize

A £50 voucher to spend at the Real Food shop is on offer to someone taking part in a Communities Living Sustainably in Dorset (CLS) survey.

But those wanting to take part will have to be quick – the online survey ends on February 6th.

The survey helps CLS understand current attitudes and behaviour towards the environment which helps shape their work, and help them measure changes since last year.

The Real Food shop sources food locally which helps to cut greenhouse gas emissions as well as support the local economy.

The survey is open until February 6th and can be found at www.clsdorset.org.uk/Greener_choices-Survey_2015.

Climate change lecture at museum

A LECTURE at the county museum with a speaker from the Met Office will look at our changing climate.

The geology lecture on Wednesday, February 11th at 7.00pm will be given by Dr Felicity Liggins of the Meteorological Office.

She will talk about the possible causes of exceptional weather events and to what degree climate change could be to blame.

The series of winter storms in 2013 was exceptional in its duration and led to the wettest December to January period since records began.

Heavy rains, strong winds and high waves led to widespread flooding and coastal damage causing significant disruption to individuals, businesses and infrastructure. But the UK wasn't alone in experiencing extreme weather. It also coincided with exceptionally cold weather in Canada and the USA and increased rainfall over Indonesia.

Felicity Liggins is a senior climate consultant bringing interpretation of climate science to a range of customers including the oil and gas industries and local government. She helps organisations identify the challenges and opportunities climate change could bring both in the UK and around the world.

The event is free but donations are welcome and all are welcome to attend. Further information is available on www.dorsetcountymuseum.org.

Boxers recognised for voluntary work

TWO members of Dorchester & District Boxing Club, Kieron Clewett and Sol Gilday-Evans, who have given their time voluntarily to help train and influence younger boxers were recognised in the annual Volunteer Centre Dorset awards held recently.

Unfortunately the very popular Clewett, known in the club as the 'King of the Ring' died last year and his award was received by his parents Barry and Miriam.

Head coach Ben Geyser said: "Kieron helped train, and influenced many youngsters to follow in his path to train hard and box easy, keep fit and eat healthily; as well as learn to duck!"

"He was sharp, witty and a tough cookie in the ring, yet underneath he was sensitive, sensible, funny, kind and immensely loyal."

His memory and achievements are listed on the club's Annual Shield courtesy of John Manly and through the Kieron Clewett Special Memorial Trophy donated to the club by his parents.

Gildey-Evans said that Clewett's calm, confident outlook had inspired and enthralled him and claimed that a lot of his success was due to him.

Geyser said of him: "Sol's friendly manner has strengthened other pupil's worries and limitations, by modestly joking that you don't have to be a muscle bound heavyweight to flourish and succeed in boxing.

"Sol gives hours of his free time coaching, not only the younger members but he gets in with the heavyweights."

With the club's blessing, Gilday-Evans is thinking of taking his boxing career a step further and circulate for sparring at other clubs in the Bournemouth, Bristol and London areas.

Geyser has said that he has the ability to branch out and make a name for himself.

"He has the experience, strength, sense of humour and endearing compassionate kind heart to succeed."

He added: "Sol has been a wonderful asset to the club and the other members. Don't forget the Dorchester club when you are famous Sol!"

Geyser also complimented the Volunteer Centre Dorset for all their hard work saying: "Three cheers for the workforce at the Volunteer Centre, they are the unsung heroes behind the scenes, keeping the show on the road."

Museum to host Victorian fair

THE Dorset County Museum will be hosting a free Victorian fair on Sunday, February 22nd from 2.00pm to 5.00pm.

Children and adults will experience a whole range of activities which will include learning about life in Victorian times, classroom lessons, reciting Dorset dialect words and traditional rural crafts.

There will be craft demonstrations of Dorset buttons, making bonnets, perfumery and net making.

A variety of stalls will include Victorian children's toys and popular parlour games.

There will also be a Victorian tea as well as a raffle and quiz.

Tim Laycock, well-known folk musician, actor and storyteller and other performers will provide traditional singing, music, dance and poetry reading throughout the afternoon.

The funds raised from the fayre will go towards the refurbishment of the museum's William Barnes collection and gallery which is dedicated to Dorset's greatest dialect poet. Barnes's poems are characterised by a singular sweetness and tenderness of feeling, deep insight into humble country life and character, and an exquisite feeling for local scenery.

We are very grateful to Batten's Charitable Trust which has sponsored this event.

Public First campaigning for democracy in Dorset

PUBLIC First Group's non-party-political 'Campaign for Local Democracy' gets underway in earnest on Saturday, 7th February with the launch of a petition aimed at achieving a referendum on West Dorset District Council (WDDC)'s local governance.

When at least 5% of the electors on WDDC's electoral roll are validated as having signed up to the petition, a referendum will be triggered, to change the District Council's form of governance to a committee system.

"We believe this will be a much more open, inclusive and democratic system," says John Grantham, the group's secretary.

"We are launching a website on Wednesday at www.publicfirstgroup.co.uk and our planned schedule of street-signing events will be given there."

"We will be in South Street, Dorchester this coming Saturday between 10.00am and 3.00pm and look for a good start towards achieving the required level signatories on our petition."

■ KIT Vaughan talking to Dorchester's community woodland enthusiasts

Cafe Sci talk on foraging

ON Friday, March 19th from 7.30-9.00pm Café Sci moves to the Dorchester Arts Centre for a discussion on: 'Is foraging ecologically sustainable?' with a presentation by John Wright from Maiden Newton who has appeared on a number of TV programmes, including several River-side Cottage appearances.

The final meeting of the year takes place on Thursday, April 30th with a presentation on a cutting-edge palaeontology topic by Professor Phillip Manning, University of Manchester.

Duchy gives woodland to community

TRANSITION Town Dorchester has set up a community woodland project.

A well-attended introductory meeting was held at the Dorford Centre with Kit Vaughan, of Prime Coppice in Whitchurch Canonicorum explaining his experiences of running a woodland with the help of community groups.

The meeting was followed by a 'woodland walk-about', to show everyone the patches of woodland which they are going to be managing on the edge of Poundbury.

The Duchy of Cornwall has handed over several small areas of woodland, of varying ages, close to the existing community farm and orchard.

Plans for the woodland include planting more trees and hedges, surveys to assess the bird, insect and plant life, establishing a forest garden, inviting schools or groups of young people to take part in activities such as making bat and bird boxes.

The project has received support from Big Lottery funded Communities Living Sustainably project and the Dorset Area of Natural Beauty and is part of a wider network of small community woodland projects in West Dorset.

News in brief...

■ WESSEX MILITARY BAND: Rehearsals are about to get underway for the Wessex Military Band in Dorchester with an appeal for new members to come and join.

The band, which performs at a variety of events during the year, rehearse at the Boys' Brigade headquarters in Sawmills Lane, off Weymouth Avenue from 10.00am to 2.30pm on Sundays, starting on February 8th.

■ DIABETES UK'S LOCAL GROUP will host the national president, Richard Lane, at a meeting in Dorchester on February 12th.

The event, which starts at 7.00pm at the Dorford Church, includes a talk and the group annual meeting.

Prospective members are welcome to attend.

■ STRATTON HISTORY GROUP will meet again on Thursday, February 12th at 7.00pm in the village hall.

It hopes to start collating the documents, artefacts and photographs held at various locations within the parish.

Further details can be obtained from Chris Boulton at boultonchris@icloud.com.

Seven pages of old black and white photos have been added to the Stratton website.

■ OLDER PEOPLE are being advised to ask for identification from doorstep callers.

The warning comes from Dorchester police after several reported incidents of callers claiming to be from a charity and then asking for bank details.

Police say callers should either try and verify that the person they are talking to is genuine or ask them to leave the property.

Help save Lyme Bay's mega-fauna

■ Bottlenose dolphin ©Stewart Canham

Two of Dorset's leading wildlife conservation organisations want special protection given to the waters of Lyme Bay because it will help whales, dolphins and basking sharks to survive.

In a report published by the Wildlife Trusts, part of Lyme Bay has been named as one of the 17 special sites in England and Wales which need to be protected for these spectacular marine giants, also known as 'mega fauna'. These sites are 'hot-spots' where these animals gather to feed, breed and socialise.

Among the UK's most spectacular wildlife, animals such as dolphins, whales, and sharks are continuously at risk from what the marine groups claim are "damaging human activities such as marine litter, industrial fishing and pollution".

They add that, while the government has begun protecting areas of sea by developing Marine Protected Areas, this will only protect wildlife and habitats on the sea bed.

Mobile wildlife has been omitted from this developing network of protection.

Conservation manager for MARINELife, Dr Rachel Davies, said: "Research carried out by MARINELife has highlighted part of Lyme Bay as a nationally important foraging area for white-beaked dolphins and we see them return to the same site regularly."

"Harbour porpoise are regularly recorded in all seasons and there are also important numbers of common dolphin and bottlenose dolphin."

"Locally and nationally important numbers of the globally endangered Balearic shearwater as well as guillemot, razorbill, great skua and gannet are present in the area along with the marine giants, minke whale and basking shark."

Dorset Wildlife Trust Marine Awareness Officer, Julie Hatcher, said: "Another site off the Lizard peninsula in Cornwall is proposed for protection as one of the UK's top four whale and dolphin hotspots.

"Among the 14 cetacean species recorded there are England's south west bottlenose dolphin population, some of which are regular visitors to the Dorset coast and can often be seen from Durlston Head and Portland Bill.

"Protecting this site is very important for Dorset's bottlenose dolphins and we're encouraging as many people as possible to get involved with supporting us."

The Wildlife Trust's 'Save Our Ocean Giants' campaign is asking people to sign the e-petition, which will be presented to the government later this year.

To find out more and sign the petition, visit www.wildlifetrusts.org/oceangiants.

The campaign can also be shared on Twitter using #act4giants and #oceangiants.

Magna staff gearing up for Air Ambulance cycle ride

A GROUP of staff from the Dorchester-based Magna group, will be donning their lycra in May to raise money for the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance.

Ten Magna employees plus friends and family will be taking part in the coast-to-coast cycle challenge on Sunday, May 17th.

The Magna team will be part of 600 riders in the challenging 54 mile route setting off from the west Somerset port of Watchet to finish in West Bay.

Team member and head of communication for Magna, Catriona Fountain, commented, "We'll be putting in the miles over the next couple of months in preparation for the ride. Our aim is not only to complete the ride but raise a good amount for the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance as it is a charity that relies heavily on donations from the public."

The team has set up a 'Just Giving' page for anyone who would like to sponsor them.

Care home raises £1,200 for charities

THE CASTLE View care home in Dorchester has raised nearly £1,200 for a number of charities during last year - including Parkinson's, Sports Relief, MacMillan Cancer Support and the Joseph Weld Hospice.

Karen Burdon, activities manager at Colten Care, said: "It's entirely up to our residents which charities we support.

"Once the choice is made, we all get behind it.

"Team members like to take part in sponsored events, such as walks and bike rides, and we enable our residents to contribute directly in meaningful ways such as making arts and crafts to sell at fundraising events."

Last year's fundraising across Dorset, Hampshire and Wiltshire means that Colten Care residents, families and staff between them raised more than £110,000 for charities over five years.

Colten Care is a family business with more than 30 years experience in designing, building and managing care homes. They run 19 care homes, mostly in Dorset.

Optum appointed to develop health hub

FOLLOWING a competitive tender process, Public Health Dorset has appointed Optum, a leading health services organisation, to develop a new phone and online service, to be launched in April, to help improve the health and wellbeing of local residents.

Optum is leading a consortium of organisations to develop and manage the service, which includes Health Promotion Devon, Dorset Community Action and University College London.

The health improvement hub will act as a one-stop-shop that will help people with their health and wellbeing, including advising people about their smoking, drinking, weight, diet and exercise, helping them adopt a healthier lifestyle, potentially reducing the risk of them developing more serious health issues later in life.

Current services vary across the county, but the hub will be the new front door to the health improvement system in Dorset, regardless of where someone is living.

The service will be available to more than 750,000 people in Dorset, Bournemouth and Poole.

It will offer local residents one county-wide contact number and a simple-to-use website that can help tailor the right level of support for each individuals' needs.

The hub will also better enable community partners and health professionals to refer people to the service.

Dr David Phillips, director of Public Health Dorset, said: "This is a great opportunity to address some of our biggest health issues head-on. We know how difficult it can be for people to make and sustain changes in their health, whether giving up smoking, cutting down on alcohol, taking more exercise, or losing weight and eating healthily.

"What the new health improvement hub can do is become a powerful support service for people no matter how simple or complex their needs are.

"We're delighted that Optum is going to develop the health improvement hub. They have a vast amount of experience and expertise in developing health services, and we look forward to working closely with them."

Katherine Ward, Global Growth Officer at Optum, said: "Optum is grateful for the opportunity to support Public Health Dorset in providing one clear and simple access point that helps Dorset residents make positive lifestyle changes that improve their health and wellbeing."

Cash available for good causes

One-off grants are still available to support good causes in many communities around Dorset, through your local county councillor.

All 45 members of the council can access a budget of up to £5,000 to aid projects, activities or initiatives in their electoral divisions.

While some councillors have already used some or all of their funds - more than £104,000 has been given out since the scheme was introduced last April - there is still money available until the end of March.

Local residents are being urged to come up with ideas about how the cash can best be spent. The funds must be used to improve the economic, environmental or social well-being of the area.

Grants have so far met a range of local needs, ranging from new fingerpost signs and village bench repairs to extra equipment for schools, playgroups and special needs groups.

Cllr Robert Gould, Leader of the council, said the money provided real grass-roots support to local communities.

He explained: "Our councillors know what is important to people in their areas better than anyone, and this fund allows them to target money to the local projects and facilities where it is needed the most.

"The budgets can be used in all kinds of ways, from repairs to a village hall to support for a community initiative or voluntary group. If you could make use of such a grant, contact your local county councillor and your idea will be considered."

To find contact details for your local councillor, go to www.dorsetforyou.com/countycouncillors or call (01305) 221000.

Police seek more special constables

DORSET police today, Friday 30 January 2015, begins a recruitment drive for special constables.

Special constables are volunteer police officers who have the same powers as regular police officers, wear the same uniform and are issued with the same equipment.

In 2014 Dorset police welcomed 92 special constables to the force.

Chief Constable Debbie Simpson said: "I am proud to announce the launch of Dorset police's special constabulary campaign for 2015.

"Having the heart of our community working with us provides an important opportunity for our citizens to influence the way we police our county.

"Volunteering in these roles will be exciting, challenging, rewarding and offer a chance for you to bring your skills, knowledge and experience to help keep local communities safe.

"In return for training, camaraderie and being a key part of our team, we ask for your commitment, professionalism and a will to succeed in delivering the highest standards of service that our community rightly deserves."

Special constables in Dorset get involved in a range of day-to-day policing activities, including patrol work, community events, targeted operations and specialist training.

There are special constables dedicated to traffic, marine and rural policing as well as general patrol duties.

A special constable is asked to work an average of 16 hours a month, but the working hours are flexible so they can give more time if they can spare it and it can work around other commitments.

Police and Crime Commissioner for Dorset, Martyn Underhill, said: "Becoming a volunteer special constable is a great way for you to make a difference in your community.

"Special constables come from all walks of life but, whatever your background, you can take pride from giving something back to the community of Dorset."

Teresa May praises new Dorset police approach to mental health custody

HOME Secretary, Theresa May, has praised an innovative mental health street triage service in Dorset which reduces the number of times a custody suite is used as a place of safety for those suffering a mental health crisis.

Figures show 44% fewer people were placed in custody during 2014 as there were in 2013 as a result of displaying a mental health condition.

The 12-month scheme, which started on Friday, June 27th 2014 sees mental health practitioners assisting police officers on patrol on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights from 7.00pm to 8.30am. The aim is to provide police officers attending an incident with background medical information, advice, and if needed a full assessment regarding the mental health of a person.

As part of the street triage service, mental health practitioners from Dorset Healthcare run a telephone triage service to support police officers out on patrol, assisting officers when they are responding to emergency calls and giving advice to staff in police control rooms.

Home Secretary, Theresa May praised the scheme during the Policing and Mental Health summit at the end of last year.

She said: "PCC, Martyn Underhill has put in place a street triage scheme to help ensure people in a mental health crisis get the support they need.

"Early findings show street triage pilots are working. The number of people being detained has fallen by 25% across all pilot areas."

The scheme operates across Dorset and, at the request of the police, mental health professionals also attend incidents in Bournemouth, Poole and Weymouth conurbations.

This scheme diverts people away from the criminal justice system, when appropriate, and provides access to community-based services thereby ensuring that their health and social care needs are known and provided for appropriately.

Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill said: "It is crucial that people with mental health

■ HOME Secretary Theresa May

"I am delighted that this scheme is reducing the number of people who are detained under Section 136 of the Mental Health Act.

"With the support of health professionals, officers have the assistance they need to treat vulnerable people appropriately in times of crisis. This is a huge step forwards in our partnership work between health services and the police."

County Council cabinet reshuffled

DORSET County Council leader, Robert Gould, has reshuffled his cabinet to focus more clearly local people's priorities.

Cllr Gould has reshaped the portfolios of leading councillors, taking into account what people said was important during the Ask Dorset consultation roadshows last summer.

The cabinet is responsible for strategic leadership on the council's main policies and recommending decisions to the full council of 45 councillors.

The new portfolios and the councillors who will carry out those duties are:

- Communities, health and wellbeing: Rebecca Knox,
- Economy and growth: Colin Jamieson,
- Environment: Peter Finney,
- Children and young people: Toni Coombs,
- Adult and community services: Jill Haynes,
- Corporate development: Robin Cook.

Cllr Gould, who became leader in December 2014, will also have responsibility for budget and financial matters.

He said: "We face major financial challenges for some time to come and the cabinet needs to work closely as a team to steer the council through this.

"Local people told us, through the Ask Dorset roadshows last year, what their priorities are and we need to respond to those.

"The new portfolios for community, health and wellbeing and economy and growth clearly reflect important areas of focus for us - they both make a vital contribution to improving life for people in Dorset.

"By reorganising the responsibilities I am giving new momentum to our plans to transform the council and the way it works for everyone in Dorset."

Cllr Gould has also pledged to work with all county councillors to make closer links with communities across the county and represent local views.

■ LEADER of Dorset County Council, Cllr Robert Gould

Robin Cook is the only councillor who is new to the cabinet. Cllr Cook represents the Minster ward in east Dorset and was elected in 2009. He sits on several committees and is chairman of the Environment Overview committee and the Children and Adult Services Appeals committee.

Cllr Cook said: "I feel privileged to be selected for this challenging position. This role will benefit from my years working in the private sector, particularly in the field of managing and delivering first class customer service."

Celebrate Valentine's Day with the help of these local businesses

... Did you know ...

♥ THE saint we celebrate on Valentine's Day is known officially as St. Valentine of Rome in order to differentiate him from the dozen or so other Valentines on the list. Because Valentinus - from the Latin word for worthy, strong or powerful - was a popular name between the second and eighth centuries AD, several martyrs over the centuries have carried this name. The official Roman Catholic roster of saints shows about a dozen who were named Valentine or some variation thereof.

♥ VALENTINE is the patron saint of beekeepers and epilepsy, among many other things. Saints are certainly expected to keep busy in the afterlife. Their holy duties include interceding in earthly affairs and entertaining petitions from living souls. In this respect, St Valentine has wide-ranging spiritual responsibilities. People call on him to watch over the lives of lovers, of course, but also for interventions regarding beekeeping and epilepsy, as well as the plague, fainting and travelling. As you might expect, he's also the patron saint of engaged couples and happy marriages.

♥ YOU can find Valentine's skull in Rome. The flower-adorned skull of St. Valentine is on display in the Basilica of Santa Maria in Cosmedin, Rome. In the early 1800s, the excavation of a catacomb near Rome yielded skeletal remains and other relics now associated with St Valentine.

♥ THE medieval English poet Geoffrey Chaucer often took liberties with history, placing his poetic characters into fictitious historical contexts that he represented as real. No record exists of romantic celebrations on Valentine's Day prior to a poem Chaucer wrote around 1375. In his work "Parliament of Foules," he links a tradition of courtly love with the celebration of St. Valentine's Feast Day.

The Story of St. Valentine

IN 270 A.D., marriage had been outlawed by the emperor of Rome, Claudius II. Claudius issued this decree because he thought that married men made bad soldiers since they were reluctant to be torn away from their families in the case of war. Claudius had also outlawed Christianity in this time period because he wished to be praised as the one supreme god, the Emperor of Rome. Valentine was the bishop of Interamna during this period of oppression. Valentine thought that the decrees of Rome were wrong. He believed that people should be free to love God and to marry. Valentine invited the young couples of the area to come to him. When they came, Valentine secretly performed services of matrimony and united the couples.

Valentine was eventually caught and was brought before the emperor. The emperor saw that Valentine had conviction and drive that was unsurpassed among his men. Claudius tried and tried to persuade Valentine to leave Christianity, serve the Roman empire and the Roman gods. In exchange, Claudius would pardon him and make him one of his allies. St. Valentine held to his faith and did not renounce Christ. Because of this, the emperor sentenced him to a three-part execution. First, Valentine would be beaten, then stoned, and then finally, decapitated. Valentine died on February 14th, 270 A.D.

While in prison, waiting for his sentence to be carried out, Valentine fell in love with the jailer's daughter, the blind Asterius. During the course of Valentine's prison stay, a miracle occurred and Asterius regained her sight. Valentine sent her a final farewell note. He signed his last note, "From Your Valentine." Even today, this message remains as the motto for our Valentine's Day celebrations.

Bridport Round Table Valentines Prom

THE annual Bridport Round Table Skool Disco event held at Freshwater Beach Holiday Park is having a makeover this year as members are re-launching the event as a Valentines Prom.

Gary Hedges, a member of Bridport Round Table, said: "The evening is to replace the Skool Disco event and hopefully become an annual event. We have spoken to many people and the feeling was that the Skool Disco needed a refresh.

"To carry out the valentines theme we will be decorating the place with hundreds of balloons, there will be a photo booth and a live six piece band called The Magic Tones who will be playing music between a disco set.

"The music will be similar to the Skool Disco with hits from the 70s and 80s as that part worked well and the dance floor was always full.

"The dress code we have left open with 'dress to impress' and there will be a shuttle bus leaving Bucky Doo Square at 7.15pm and 8.15pm and returning at midnight and 1am."

Advance tickets cost £12 and are available from Frosts, Bridport Toymaster, Instant Redress and Freshwater Beach Holiday Park or tickets can be brought on the door.

CONVERSATION hearts, truffles galore and heart-shaped boxes of chocolates—these are the symbols of Valentine's Day for many lovers around the world.

But why do we have a "sweets to the sweet" tradition every February 14? While the roots of Valentine's Day go all the way back to Roman times, chocolate gift giving is a much more recent development. Is it because of chocolate's reputed aphrodisiac qualities, or just a way for companies to sell more sweets in the lull between Christmas and Easter? Whatever the reason, those ubiquitous little red boxes flood shelves every year.

By the 1840s, the notion of Valentine's Day as a holiday to celebrate romantic love had taken over most of the English-speaking world. It was Cupid's golden age—the prudish Victorians adored the notion of courtly love and showered each other with elaborate cards and gifts.

Into this love-crazed fray came Richard Cadbury, scion of the British chocolate manufacturing family and responsible for sales at a crucial point in his company's history.

Cadbury had recently improved its chocolate making technique so as to extract pure cocoa butter from whole beans, producing a more palatable drinking chocolate than most Britons had ever tasted. This process resulted in an excess amount of cocoa butter, which Cadbury used to produce many more varieties of what was then called "eating chocolate." Richard recognised a great marketing opportunity for the new chocolates and started selling them in beautifully decorated boxes that he designed himself.

From that point, it was a quick jump to taking the familiar images of Cupids and roses and putting them on heart-shaped boxes. While Richard Cadbury didn't actually patent the heart-shaped box, it's widely believed that he was the first to produce one. Cadbury marketed the boxes as having a dual purpose.

When the chocolates had all been eaten, the box itself was so pretty that it could be used again and again to store mementos, from locks of hair to love letters. The boxes grew increasingly elaborate until the outbreak of World War II, when sugar was rationed and Valentine's Day celebrations were scaled down.

But Victorian-era Cadbury boxes still exist, and many are treasured family heirlooms or valuable items prized by collectors.

Public First steps up campaign

PARLIAMENTARY candidates from the five main political parties will be invited to take part in two further public debates on the subject of local democracy in West Dorset, after almost 300 people voiced their concerns at an event in Dorchester earlier this month.

The Public First group, which staged the first meeting on January 7th, has quickly organised two follow-up events for next month, as part of its increasingly well-supported 'campaign for local democracy'.

Leading local politicians, including prospective parliamentary candidates from the major parties, will be invited to attend the meeting and discuss the workings of local government.

The leader of West Dorset District Council (WDDC), Cllr Anthony Alford, and the leaders of Dorset County Council's two main parties, will also be asked to attend the meetings, which take place in Bridport and Sherborne in February.

The events follow a heated debate at Dorchester's Corn Exchange, which attracted 270 members of the public.

After major concerns were raised about WDDC's cabinet system, Public First has published its main aims, which include seeking a local referendum on the controversial process.

Campaigners say they want to see a more representative system where all elected councillors are given an equal opportunity to have their say.

And they are also seeking to create forums across the district, where residents can share their views.

The group's second meeting, in Bridport, will again cover the cabinet system, but also assess whether a unitary authority should be created in Dorset.

Public First points to projections for multi-million-pound savings for both Leicestershire and Oxfordshire county councils, should they decide to form a single governing body.

Members of the public will have the chance to speak first at the meeting, before leading councillors face a grilling over the cabinet system.

"It is again the public who will speak first, and most", said Symondsbury resident Clive Stafford Smith, chairman of the Public First group.

"We are inviting prospective parliamentary candidates from

Beware door to door fraudsters

OLDER people are being advised to ask for identification from doorstep callers.

The warning comes from Dorchester police after several reported incidents of callers claiming to be from a charity and then asking for bank details.

Police say callers should either try and verify that the person they are talking to is genuine or ask them to leave the property.

Lottery scam targets the elderly

PEOPLE across Dorset are being warned to be on their guard about lottery fraud.

The National Fraud Intelligence Bureau says criminals pretend that someone has won a prize, often a lottery.

A spokesman said: "The people most likely to fall victim to this tend to be over the age of 60 although younger people do fall victim too, but we know that it is often close family members of victims who spot the tell-tale signs of the fraud."

Criminals will normally get in touch by letter or email and will try to engage their victim in dialogue with them. Once they have convinced you that they are 'genuine', they will ask for a fee to be paid to release your winnings. This fee could be to pay taxes or duty, or for a solicitor, banker or judge to authorise the transaction. No genuine lottery will ever ask for any sort of fee to be paid.

"Often this first fee will be small," said the spokesman, "but once they know you are willing to pay it they will ask for more and more money with ever-changing excuses as to why they need it. Victims can end up losing tens of thousands of pounds over the course of months or even years.

"Many will be surprised that this type of crime takes place.

"After all, why would anyone fall prey to scam like this when they never entered any such lottery in the first place?

"Why would they have to pay money when they are supposed to have won millions of pounds?

"These criminals are incredibly persuasive and prey on people who are very trusting. Therefore, even if you know that you would not get defrauded like this, please spread this message widely to friends, family and to people within your community.

"If you haven't entered a lottery or a prize draw you haven't won.

"Delete any emails which detail you winning money or being in a position to make a fortune and spread the message among people you come into contact with, especially older people in your family.

"Also look out for any unusual behaviour, for instance someone paying money via money service bureaux, like Western Union or MoneyGram, or buying UKash vouchers."

Council launches new web pages for Dorset businesses

BUSINESS advice is now available online in west Dorset, Weymouth and Portland on new internet pages set up by the councils.

Cllr Anthony Alford, Leader of West Dorset District Council, said: "Ensuring the local economy in west Dorset continues to thrive is one of the council's top priorities and I hope these new web pages will offer the best advice and support for our local businesses."

The pages are available at: www.dorsetforyou.com/business-support/wdwp.

Businesses can also sign up to a business support e-newsletter by visiting www.dorsetforyou.com/e-news.

THE ULTIMATE GARDEN FENCE

Maintenance Free Guaranteed for 25 years

AT LAST! The holy grail of fencing transforming gardens across the UK!

It may do "exactly what it says on the tin" but let's face it, treating a timber fence can never be called fun! In fact, owning a timber fence isn't much fun either with costly, time consuming maintenance and repairs almost every year.

Finally, the alternative to timber fencing, that goes up and stays up....

Colourfence fencing solutions are made from innovative Colorbond steel, virtually maintenance free with an occasional wash down with water to keep it looking as good as new – so you never need to pick up that paintbrush again! We guarantee your fence will remain unspoiled for at least 25 years, even against gusts of 130mph!

Available in a variety of heights and colours with or without trellis, our skilled installation team will make short work of transforming your garden.

The best news is the pricing is just as attractive, starting costs are in line with comparable traditional systems but offer the ongoing peace of mind you're your investment will continue to save time and money year after year.

For those of us who want a maintenance free garden, Colourfence promises a lifetime of hassle-free enjoyment.

Malabar Trading

A VISIT to Malabar Trading is a good antidote to these grey February days, there's lots of colour inside in the form of textiles, kilims, bakingware and accessories.

There's been a delivery of small and medium sized Turkish kilims and there will soon be new kilims designed in France and woven in Afghanistan. There will also be some new designs in kilim cushion covers.

Within the next week there will also be new block-printed cotton filled quilts, tablecloths, napkins and kimonos. Also expected soon are two new designs in voile curtains which are being made in India for the shop.

New short quilted jackets and quilted coats are now in the shop and there are new leather handbags and cashmere mittens.

As ever there are beautiful scarves and a wide selection of nightwear, Turkish towels and silver jewellery. There are also the Japanese ceramics, marquetry frames, stationery and scented candles.

New and exciting items will be arriving every week for the next few months, as there are usually limited numbers it is always worth calling in from time to time.

Devon and Dorset Loft Conversions of Lyme Regis specialise in both internal and external alterations as well as loft conversions. We also carry out renovation work to a high standard.

Having worked in the West Country for 25 years

JLAC

JIM Larcombe specialises in bringing a touch of contemporary architecture to the area. He has built up a reliable team that follows the same views and helps deliver a high quality finish to your property. Jim can also deliver a high quality design that suits your needs, whether it is a simple Kitchen extension in keeping with the existing property, or whether you want that touch of modernism, he can put those ideas into practice.

With regular contact with estate agents, he can help you find your dream property or seek advice on the improvements required to sell your property.

With more people opting to work from home, why not explore the idea of having a new space added to your property specially designed to your requirements. Jim has recently been designing a number of multifunctional spaces to suit the clients needs. With a list of contractors that can help deliver the perfect home work space.

Travelling is never an issue, currently Jim has jobs covering areas up to Yeovil, Dorchester and across to Sidmouth, as well as work further afield in the London area. So why not give Jim and ring and see how he can help.

Since setting up his business in March 2011, Jim has also completed projects ranging from a small Kitchen Extension through to detached garages and ancillary accommodation, Listed Barn Conversions and was also part of the team associated with gaining the Outline Planning Approval for a new primary school.

With a large knowledge of the local area, Jim is very keen on helping to provide low cost housing in the area. With first time buyers struggling to get onto the market, he is keen to pass on his knowledge and advice to help provide this much-needed local requirement.

■ Jim can now offer full design and build contracts through new sister company J Larcombe Construction. Call or email via the contact information on the adjacent advert for more details.

ABC Blinds

ABC Blinds have operated in Bridport and served the people of West Dorset for over 37 years, we still do business the traditional way, where quality and service are extremely important. We won't bamboozle you with facts and figures, as we think the number that is important is our 37 years of sincere trading!

We are totally independent and are not part of a big chain, so we don't have to focus on volume sales; instead we can oversee your blinds being as you want, allowing you to relax in the knowledge that you will get the right blind for your windows.

We never use over zealous salesmen or gimmicks, just good old fashioned HONESTY; we will not sell you a blind you do not need or is inappropriate for your window space. We only sell quality products at a good price all year round, eliminating the need for pretentious sales or discounts.

We are members of the Guild of master Craftsmen and adhere to and exceed the high standards expected. From conception to completion, ABC Blinds is the trusted name you can rely on.

Colemans

COLEMANS, based on the St. Andrews Industrial Estate, have recently finished the displays in their new showroom. Several displays have working appliances so you can see if they would be a good fit for your kitchen, bedroom or bathroom.

For example there is an Electric induction hob that boils a pint of water in two minutes and the heat turns off when the pan is removed, great for a family kitchen.

One of the walk-in shower displays is fully working, so you can see how this luxury shower could work in your home.

The team are on hand with expert advice and a state of the art 3D planning service. Remember COLEMANS for KBB, KITCHENS-BEDROOMS-BATHROOMS. We can design it, we can supply it, we can install it.

5 tips for choosing carpet

By Julia Gray, Press Association

1. Consider where the carpet is going - bedroom carpets are subjected to far less wear than stair carpets, for example. Also think about your household - do you need something hardwearing because you have children and/or pets, or do you live alone? For busy rooms, go for a blend of 80% wool and 20% nylon - the wool will make the carpet look good and the nylon will help it perform better.
2. Carpet is like most things; you get what you pay for. "If you're thinking long term, then an Axminster or Wilton construction will perform better and often add value," says Jeremy Wilson of Ulster Carpets (www.ulstercarpets.com). "Going for a budget carpet may seem like a good idea in the short-term, but you may come to regret it in a few years."
3. Ideally, you need a two or three-ply carpet yarn - single-ply yarns are cheaper and look fine for a while, but will flatten and wear much quicker than two or three-ply yarns. A better engineered carpet will last longer and be better value in the long-term."
4. When budgeting for your new carpet, don't forget to include the cost of fitting and underlay. New underlay is vital for the carpet to sit properly and wear evenly, and the quality of the underlay will affect the lifespan of the carpet.
5. Get your room professionally measured to ensure you order the right amount of carpet. It's also important to get the carpet professionally fitted. And always buy from a reputable retailer - all 450 Carpet Foundation (www.carpetfoundation.com) retail members adhere to a code of practice approved by the Trading Standards Institute, which gives customers peace of mind.

Take a look at British Gypsum's Products Of The Week

BRITISH Gypsum has launched a couple of innovative products (see www.rooms-madeforyou.co.uk for stockists), ideal if you're doing big home improvements. Silent Floor soundproof flooring is just the thing for noisy households because it provides better sound insulation, so if your kids are playing loud music upstairs, you're less likely to hear it downstairs.

For walls, there's Lifestyle Wall plasterboard, which is stronger, more durable and more sound-resistant than standard plasterboard. You can securely screw a Lifestyle Wall without using special screws or having to find firm fixings underneath the plasterboard. Why struggle when DIY can be easy?

New line-up announcements for Camp Bestival

WHERE THE WILD THINGS WILL BE

THE second wave of acts has been revealed for Camp Bestival 2015, following the announcement of Underworld, Clean Bandit and Kaiser Chiefs as headliners.

This year's festival, taking place once again at the picturesque Lulworth Castle, takes on a 'Wild theme'.

Chief Wild Thing Rob da Bank: "I don't know where to start with our typically all encompassing, diverse and pretty wild line-up. Maybe at the end, with electronic mega-dons Underworld revving up for the grand finale on Sunday all the way back through iconic pop from Alison Moyet, Level 42 and Bob Geldof, young guns Wretch 32, Professor Green and Clean Bandit, plus the hottest new blood Kate Tempest, Slaves and George The Poet. I'm really hoping there's a lot to discover at Camp Bestival 2015. Not forgetting our most requested act every year and a total legend: Mr Tumble!

"As Camp veterans know, music is only one part of the adventure and our incredible creative crew have really pulled it out of the bag with some really wild arts and kids shenanigans from The Train Trip to West End Kids and all the amazing workshops and wild activities to boot. Really hope to see you at our castle by the sea in sunny Lulworth in July!"

There will once again be a bill-topping slot from the man, the legend, and absolute kids' favourite, Mr Tumble. The wildest high jinx are guaranteed from the number one kids' clown, so whatever you do, don't dare miss Mr Tumble when he assumes his throne at Lulworth Castle!

Bob Geldof

Joining the three previously announced headliners, there will be loads more brilliant live music from the likes of Hackney's finest, Professor Green and lyrical gymnast, Wretch 32, who commented "I'm extremely excited to be coming to play for my fans at Camp Bestival, expect a special show! See you in the summer!"

Mercury Prize nominee and long-time Camp Bestival favourite Kate Tempest, world famous philanthropist and sometime Boomtown Rat Bob Geldof, legendary dance machine Soul II Soul, 80s pop powerhouse, Level 42, incredible chanteuse Alison Moyet, the silky voiced Ella Eyre, funk and rare groove legends Cymande, proper Manchester rave crew 808 State, original punk-pop geniuses Buzzcocks, turntable maestro DJ Yoda, and funny funkers, The Cuban Brothers.

Bringing new meaning to the word campfire, we'll also have all out action from psychedelic warriors The Crazy World Of Arthur Brown, in your face duo Slaves, bubble gum upstarts Only the Young, BBC Sound of 2015 finalist George The Poet, folk royalty Eliza Carthy, and Australian male vocal group The Spooky Men's Chorale. Plus we'll have raucous times with Mr Wilson's Second Liners, Ekkah, The Rajasthan Heritage Brass Band, Weymouth Ukuleleans, Sinful Maggie, Folk Idol and Reggaerobics.

As well as an incredible musical line-up, Camp Bestival is renowned for its variety of entertainment for all the family, including comedy, workshops, literary talks and more.

BEN POOLE SET TO ROCK THE ELECTRIC PALACE

THE Electric Palace are completing the live touring schedule for the incredible blues/rock musician Ben Poole on Saturday, February 14th. Ben has recently released his Live at the Albert Hall album, which is going down a storm with fans and critics alike, peaking at number 4 in the Amazon charts.

A talented guitarist, singer and songwriter with blues, rock, soul and pop influences, it's hard to categorise the style and genre of Ben's sound. The past few years have seen Ben Poole's profile raise far beyond expectation and a Ben Poole live show is certainly very energetic and not to be missed, giving the audience just what they want, an audience likes to be entertained and Ben and the band never fail to deliver.

Ben is no stranger to award nominations, he was nominated for three awards at the British Blues Awards in 2011, including Best Young Artist and Best Original Song, was voted 'Best Newcomer' by Blues Matters magazine in their 2012 readers' poll, and was chosen by a respected panel of music industry aficionados to represent the UK at the 2012 European Blues Challenge held in Berlin, Ben coming third out of nineteen world class entries from nineteen different countries.

The last few years have seen Ben touring regularly across Europe and he has appeared at some of the biggest festivals across the continent including appearances at the Glastonbury Festival and Download Festivals in the UK, Sierre Blues Festival and Blue Balls Festivals in Switzerland, Playing with Fire Festival in the USA, Gdynia Festival in Poland, Dolanky Festival in Czech Republic, Culemborg Festival and Highlands Festivals in Holland and the Schoppingen Blues Festival in Germany.

Ben Poole plays at the Electric Palace, Bridport on Saturday, February 14th, with doors opening at 7pm. Tickets are £10 plus booking fee in advance, or £12 on the door, and a buy one, get one free deal is available on all tickets. To book call 01308 428354, 01308 424901 or visit www.seetickets.com

The Trials of Galileo

The first flowerings of scientific truth crushed by religious dogma in the Trials of Galileo - Royal Shakespeare Company veteran Tim Hardy brings his acclaimed one-man show to Dorchester.

AFTER a successful tour of the US, a sold-out run at the Brighton Fringe Festival and Yvonne Arnaud Theatre, RSC actor Tim Hardy follows a highly successful transfer to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and multiple four-star reviews by bringing his solo show The Trials of Galileo to Dorchester this season.

The Trials of Galileo focuses on the events surrounding his trial for heresy in 1633. "The Universe is a divine miracle Galileo, not a clockwork toy! 'Proof' denies faith, and without faith we are nothing." In this reprimand of Pope Urban is contained Galileo's tragedy – a mistaken belief that all he had to do was show the church his reasoning and his evidence and the church would fall in behind him. He understood the science better than any man alive, but never grasped the politics. Until it was too late.

Tim Hardy trained as an actor at RADA and has not only worked with the Royal Shakespeare Company but he has also directed and performed in many productions across the UK, Europe and the United States. As well as roles in numerous musicals, operas and films he has also performed in television programmes for the BBC and ITV and narrated over 300 television documentaries. Tim's extensive directing credits include many of Shakespeare's plays, Twelve Angry Men, The Crucible and Gaslight.

Laura Mulhern of Dorchester Arts says, 'As some may remember, the Royal Shakespeare Company were regular visitors to Dorchester a few years ago so we are really excited to welcome back another injection of RSC quality to the county town with this highly acclaimed dramatic representation of history.'

The Trials of Galileo will be performed at Dorchester Arts Centre on Friday 6th February at 8pm.

Another historical drama coming to Dorchester Arts in February is United We Stand – the true story of one of the most turbulent battles in industrial history, the 1972 Builders Strike. Townsend Productions skilfully present the events surrounding the strike and the high-profile Shrewsbury 24 Campaign.

The drama season at Dorchester Arts this spring is kindly sponsored by Batters Solicitors Charitable Trust.

To book tickets for both shows call Box Office 01305 266926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

The chance to dance

KEEN ballroom dancers will travel up to 50 miles on Saturday, February 28th to try out 'Dancing Duo's' newest venue, The Beehive in Moniton.

At their first evening in town, Henry and Jeannie (Clark) will present an across-the-board mixture of ballroom, latin, sequence, jive and a few line dances with a seasonal theme: 'February Romance', and the hall will be appropriately decorated to enhance the ambience.

There is plenty of on-site parking and the cost of entry is just £6. Full bar and beverage facilities will be laid on by the centre. From Honiton main street, The Beehive can be found 500 yards along on the left.

The Duo, who have run dance events around the South West for 16 years, will also be in the area for Saturday, February 14th, presenting a Valentine's Ball, with all the trimmings, at The Guildhall in Chard - a great dance venue with superb sprung floor and amenities. Again, the entry fee is £6 and there is ample free parking (after 6pm) behind the building. You can bring your own soft drinks and snacks, while home beverages and biscuits are provided for a small charity donation. Evening wear is preferred for this event.

So far, Dancing Duo and their dancers have raised £15,000 for the regional cardiac charity - Heartswell South West.

For more information call 01803 325906 or visit www.dancingduo.co.uk

Grounded at the Marine Theatre

WINNER of the Fringe First Award (2013) and the OffWestEnd Award for Best Production, the Marine Theatre excitedly welcomes a gripping, new play entitled 'Grounded' through its doors on Saturday 7th February.

This one-woman-show tells the story of a hot-rod F16 fighter pilot turned drone operative whose career in the sky is over. Now, she sits in an air-conditioned trailer in Las Vegas flying remote-controlled drones over the Middle East. She struggles through surreal 12-hour shifts far from the battlefield, hunting terrorists by day and being a wife and mother by night.

The sole title role is convincingly portrayed by actress Lucy Ellinson, whose extensive career in theatre, television and film has resulted in great critical acclaim and numerous award nominations (The Stage Awards – Best Solo Performance, OffWestEnd Theatre Awards – Best Female Performance, Evening Standard Awards – Best Solo Performance). Her notably outstanding performances in Grounded, Mad Man (Plymouth Theatre Royal) and Trojan Women (The Gate, Notting Hill) saw rapturous critic reviews including the repetitive use of 'captivating', 'versatile' and 'mesmerising' (The Telegraph).

Previously performing to packed-out audiences in London and Edinburgh – and with recent news that Oscar Award-winning actress Anne Hathaway is set to play the role in

New York – Grounded flies from the heights of lyricism to the shallows of workaday existence, and targets our assumptions about war, family, and what it is to be a woman.

A must-see for 2015.

Grounded will be performed at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, February 7th, at 8pm.

Tickets are £11 and £9, and the show is suitable for ages 14+. To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com.

Views over Lyme Bay and fine dining for all the family

THE superbly situated Harbour Inn in Lyme Regis is a family business run by Sue Steward and her son Mark. They offer first class food, wines, ales, and views of the spectacular Jurassic Coast. Mark and Sue have a wealth of experience in hospitality including previous ownership of The Awliscombe Inn and The Wine Bar, 15 miles away in Honiton. Sue also has a high-class fashion boutique called Moba in Honiton.

Sue's celebrated artist daughter Julie provides many of the restaurant's decorations in the form of her subtly coloured, sensitive, imaginative paintings.

Their team of very experienced chefs have created a mouth-watering menu for the new season. Chefs Darrel and Ben have been working together for 12 years, and picked up a few awards along the way, including two Taste of the West Gold awards, and Best of the West. The new menu will showcase an inventive use of local produce as well as classic interpretations of old favourites. A notable new addition is the open fish sandwich. Local fish fillets in a crisp Cajun spiced crumb, rosemary ciabatta bun, French fries, leaves and homemade tartar sauce. Delicious!

The evening menu is now available seven nights a week. The restaurant has previously closed on a Sunday night during the winter but that is no longer the case. What better way to round off your weekend than sampling the fantastic local food on offer at The Harbour Inn? The new full evening and lunch menus can be seen on the page opposite.

The Harbour Inn remains popular with both locals and visitors alike. Sunday Lunch is a favourite, with locally reared Roast Beef served with all the trimmings available for just £10.80. The specials board is always full of fresh, local fish dishes, all of which can be enjoyed on the beached area with those first class views in the warmer months.

There are also a couple of tables left for Valentines dinner on Saturday, February 14th, where the new menu will be served along with a number of specials specifically created for Valentines. Call now on 01297 442299 to avoid disappointment.

United We Stand

POLITICALLY committed theatre company Townsend Productions brings the true story of one of the most turbulent battles in British industrial history – the 1972 Builders' Strike to Dorset as part of their 2015 UK tour. United We Stand will be performed on Friday, February 13th at Dorchester Arts Centre at 8pm.

The events surrounding the strike are still making headlines to this day and the high-profile Shrewsbury 24 Campaign, led by picket turned actor Ricky Tomlinson, is still seeking to overturn the prosecution of the 24 building workers.

United We Stand, written by Neil Gore tells the story behind the dispute with popular and political songs arranged by renowned folk musician John Kirkpatrick. It will reflect the great tide of anger, which rocked the very foundations of the established political elite, examine the extraordinary political will of all the participants and share the anguish of falling prey to a flagrant miscarriage of justice. Expect a combination of Townsend Productions' trademark small-cast, grand theatrical style and wit with popular and political songs of the early seventies and Ricky Tomlinson's poems from his time in prison.

Actor Ricky Tomlinson is best known for his TV appearance in the BBC sitcom The Royle Family, who was jailed during the 1970s for his part in a building workers' strike. For 30 years he and the rest of the 'Shrewsbury 24' have campaigned to clear their names. Ricky says, "Four of the Shrewsbury pickets are now dead. The oldest is 89, and I've just turned 75...this play is part of the mission to keep the issue in the public eye. It's a way of reminding the authorities that we're not going anywhere just yet."

Townsend Productions, known for high-octane political drama, has previously created a musical drama about the Tolpuddle Martyrs and a two-handed adaptation of The Ragged Trousered Philanthropists by Robert Tressell.

Tickets £10/£8 members & concessions. To book call Box Office 01305 266926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk Also showing at Bridport Arts Centre and Marine Theatre Lyme Regis

The drama season at Dorchester Arts is supported by Battens Solicitors through its Charitable Trust.

COME AND SMILE AT A CROCODILE...

A 140 MILLION year old crocodile found on the Jurassic Coast is now on display at Dorset County Museum.

The 60cm long skull dates from the Cretaceous Period of geological time, around 140 million years ago. It was found in 2007 near Swanage by Richard Edmonds, Earth Science Manager for the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site team. Richard said, "It was a really lucky find. A part of my job is to monitor the condition of the rocks and fossils along the World Heritage Site but you don't expect to find something this spectacular without spending a lot more time on the coast. I have collected fossils for thirty years but this is a once in a lifetime find."

The 'Swanage Snapper' fossil has recently been studied at Bristol University and has been found to be a new species. The full name is Goniopholis kiplingi in homage to British author and nature enthusiast Rudyard Kipling whose crocodile characters feature in stories such as the Just So Stories tales. He would have enjoyed the idea of this prehistoric creature waiting just under the surface of a warm freshwater lagoon to ambush unsuspecting prey. Dinosaurs emerging from lush tropical foliage to take a drink would have been gripped by powerful jaws and rolled beneath the water until drowned or crushed to death.

However, this particular crocodile did not have everything its own way – on top of the skull are bite marks from another crocodile, possibly even larger, which bit down with such force that the conical marks of its teeth are still visible today.

The fossil skull is very well preserved, having been buried quite rapidly by lagoon sediment, although its teeth rotted out before this took place. It was slightly flattened by the sediment's weight before it hardened into rock and is surrounded by fossil shellfish, along with a turtle shell plate and a poo (thankfully fossilised too).

Curators at Dorset County Museum are grateful to Jurassic Coast Trust for funding the project and Mowlam Metalcraft for providing the mount for the new display. For more information on the new crocodile display phone 01305 262735 or visit www.dorsetcountymuseum.org.

Players plant their magic beans ahead of panto performances

REHEARSALS are going well for Burton Bradstock Players' performances of Jack and The Beanstalk, and the cast of all ages are having lots of fun with the dances and songs.

Tickets are available from Burton Bradstock Post Office or by ringing 01308 898707. Seats are not numbered and doors open at 7pm, for the evening performances on Wednesday, February 18th to Saturday, February 21st. Doors open at 2pm for the February 21st matinee. The cost is £7 for adults and £5 for under 16s.

Come along to Burton Bradstock Village Hall to boo and hiss the baddy, laugh at the fools and cheer the hero.

CHARMOUTH - £265,000

Large Grade II Listed period end terrace house dating back to the 1800s in a central position in the village. Now in need of thorough restoration, the property has been empty for several years now and has fallen into gentle decay. A great opportunity to bring this house back to its original charm and character. The old stone wall encloses the good sized courtyard gardens front and back with a large degree of privacy. There are two single storey small outbuildings and a single garage with further side stores attached.

MORCOMBELAKE - £840,000

A unique opportunity to purchase a delightful pair of semi-detached character cottages, dating from the mid 1800's, plus a holiday letting lodge and a range of barns and outbuildings, ripe for conversion, all set within approx. 1.5 acres of gardens and grounds. Currently used as a main residence and a residential letting property, they offer a home with an income or the opportunity to combine into one spacious home. The barns and outbuilding could easily be converted into holiday letting accommodation alongside Camelia Cottage already within the grounds. Epc - C,D,E.

Renault Reveals Kadjar

BUOYED by the success of Captur, Renault is continuing its offensive in the world of crossovers with the launch of Kadjar, the brand's first C-segment crossover.

In a fast-growing and extremely popular area of the market, Kadjar will boost Renault's ambitions on the international stage, as it is due to go on sale initially in Europe and in many African and Mediterranean Basin countries, followed by China.

This sibling to Captur shakes up established thinking by bringing an innovative and attractive proposition to the crossover market. The Renault Kadjar stands out through its fluid, athletic exterior styling. Meanwhile, its interior is both sporty and refined, courtesy of the quality of the materials employed and the attention that has gone into its finish.

Available with either four- or two-wheel-drive transmission, the Renault Kadjar encourages adventure while at the same time delivering easy manoeuvrability in town thanks to its compact footprint (4.45 metres long x 1.84 metres wide).

Furnished with high-quality interior appointments and modern equipment, the Renault Kadjar offers advanced connectivity with the R-Link 2® multimedia system, along with a relaxed experience behind the wheel, courtesy of the latest driving aids.

The Renault Kadjar also benefits from a range of particularly efficient engines which position it at the forefront of the segment in terms of low fuel consumption and CO<sub>2</sub> emissions.

The Renault Kadjar will be unveiled to the public at the 85th Geneva Motor Show which opens to the public on 5th March 2015.

It will go on sale in the summer in both Europe and a high number of countries in Africa and the Mediterranean Basin region and is scheduled to appear in RHD form in the UK in the Autumn.

Renault extends its crossover range

With Kadjar, the Renault Group has showcased its creative ability with a view to conquering new markets and winning over new customers.

The dynamism of the current product offering is reflected in the average age of its range, which has decreased from 4.8 years in 2012 to 4.2 years in 2014. It is expected to reach 3.7 years by the end of 2015.

In 2014, almost one in every five vehicles sold across the world was a crossover, with the segment enjoying a market share of 23 per cent in Europe and 26 per cent in China. The segment consequently represents a real entry point to the key growth markets targeted by the group.

Captur was the second model to appear in Renault's crossover range after the Renault Koleos. Success was immediate. Thanks to its practical innovations and bold personality, this urban crossover emerged at the top of the European B-segment crossover market, with slightly more than 178,000 registrations in 2014.

Volkswagen Unveils Sporty Looking New R-Line Trim For Golf

ORDER books are now open for the stylish Golf R-Line, ahead of first deliveries in March, with prices starting from £24,190 (RRP OTR).

The R-Line specification sits above the GT model which includes Discover Navigation, sports suspension (lowered by approximately 10 mm), PreCrash preventive occupant protection as standard equipment. The R-Line trim adds sporty design cues for an extra £995.

Styling features include R-Line rear spoiler, side skirts and radiator grille, bespoke air intakes, R-Line front bumpers and fog lights, R-Line rear bumper and diffuser, and 17-inch Singapore alloy wheels.

In keeping with the sporty theme, the interior receives stainless steel pedals and front door sills, black lead grey inlays and door trims, Sports Race design front seats with R-Line logo, black rooflining, leather gear knob and gear lever gaiter and R-Line leather multifunction sports steering wheel.

Two engines are available: one petrol and one diesel. The petrol option is Volkswagen's 1.4-litre TSI engine with Active Cylinder Technology, which can deactivate two of the four cylinders for enhanced economy and returns up to 60.1 mpg on the combined cycle. Delivering 150 PS between 4,500 and 6,000 rpm, the four-cylinder engine is twinned to a six-speed manual gearbox or an optional seven-speed DSG. It will reach 62 mph from a standing start in 8.2 seconds and has a top speed of 134 mph.

The diesel alternative is the popular 2.0-litre TDI with 150 PS which can return up to 68.9 mpg on the combined cycle, with CO2 emissions ranging from 106 to 119 g/km. A six-speed manual gearbox comes as standard, with a six-speed DSG also available.

Prices for the Golf hatchback range start at £17,175 (RRP OTR) for the entry-level 1.2-litre TSI petrol model.

For R-Line pricing see below, and for more information on the Golf and the rest of the Volkswagen range visit www.volks-wagen.co.uk

Dorset football round-up

Crusaders crushed by glorious Magpies

Hungerford 0 Dorchester Town 2

Calor Premier - att; 149

DORCHESTER Town turned the form-book upside down on Saturday when they travelled to Hungerford Town and produce an inspired performance to inflict the Crusaders first home defeat of the season.

Dorchester dominated the game at the Bulpit where Hungerford where had not conceded more than one goal per game this season and on the back of an unbeaten eleven match run.

But such was the Magpies control that keeper Alan Walker-Harris only had one noteworthy save to make late in the game when he tipped Mark Draycott's effort over the bar.

Playing with a back three, Jermyn gave a debut to new signing Bradley Tarbuck, on loan from Portsmouth, on the left wing.

Former Republic of Ireland international Alan O'Brien's speed gave the Dorchester defence a couple of scares early but his crosses came to nothing, before the visitors took the lead on five minutes.

Chris Dillon's long throw into the box took a deflection and Diak John at the far post under pressure from Dan Smith, in attempting to head it over the bar only succeeded in finding the top corner of his own net.

Lewis Morgan, Ben Watson and Smith all had chances to increase the lead, but it looked like one goal was all the Magpies had to show for their first half pressure until Nathan Walker added a second a minute before the break, getting on the end of Dillon's lay back from Smith's cross to prod the ball home.

Watson had two more chances in the second half to improve the advantage whilst Crusaders keeper Paul Strudley had to tip Walker's effort over the top as Dorchester ran out comfortable winners.

Terras stop the rot

WEYMOUTH 3 HISTON 0

Calor Premier - att; 509

HAVING lost four of their last five league games Weymouth needed victory against Histon to get them back in contention for the Southern League Premier Division title.

Fortunately Corby losing at Paulton Rovers lessened the pain and allowed Weymouth to maintain second spot behind Poole Town, although the Dolphins are two points ahead with two games in hand.

The Terras were almost given a helping hand after just four minutes when visiting skipper Stuart Wall headed against his own crossbar.

Weymouth saw plenty of the ball but were finding it hard to pierce the Histon rearguard and it looked like the teams would go in all-square at the break.

However, in added time Chris Shephard got on the end of an Adam Kelly cross to put the Terras ahead.

Loanee James Reid headed wide from Shephard's cross early in the second half whilst Lewis McDonald went closest for the visitors with a shot that fizzed past Jason Matthews post.

Weymouth got breathing space on 68 minutes with a second goal; Reid firing home after Stewart Yetton had chested Chris McPhee's long pass into his path.

Histon's Salim Relzani thumped a shot against a post on 75 minutes, but Weymouth made sure of the points when Reid scored his second eight minutes from time after sub Alex Fiddes played him in.

Crusaders too strong

HUNTERFORD TOWN 2 WEYMOUTH 0

Calor Premier - att; 186

WEYMOUTH failed to prevent the Crusaders' march which has seen them go 11 games unbeaten.

It was always going to be a tough ask against a team that is undefeated at home this season, and with Weymouth's poor run of three defeats in four, so it proved.

The task was made even harder when Hungerford scored a early goal, Paul Draycott converting Alan O'Brien's corner from close range, but Steve Colwell went close in reply, powerfully heading Shephard's corner over the top.

After the break James Pilling struck the crossbar, before Crusaders keeper Paul Strudley pulled off an incredible save to prevent Calvin Brooks equalising with a header.

Try as they could Weymouth could not pierce the Crusaders' defence which had not conceded more than one goal in their home league matches.

Three minutes from time Pilling sealed the points when after losing the ball in midfield it was slipped through for the striker to run on and fire home the second.

DORSET FOOTBALL LEAGUE Senior League

CHICKERELL UNITED 5-0 DEDDENTHIDE SPARTANS

Calor Premier - att; 5-0

CHICKERELL United's unexpected 5-0 defeat at the hands of visitors Deddenthide Spartans allowed Baltic House to extend their lead at the top to six points, although they have played a game more.

Grant Chance went nap with five in their 6-1 defeat of South Cheriton with Ethan Devaney scoring the other.

Portland United Reserves stay rooted to the bottom after going down 4-0 to Gillingham Town Reserves.

The defeat leaves the Islanders three points adrift at the foot of the table not having won since early October.

Division One

SECOND PLACED KANGAROOS BEAT WESTLAND SPORTS RESERVES

Calor Premier - att; 4-1

SECOND placed Kangaroos were beaten 3-1 at Westland Sports Reserves who now take closer order in fourth; Richard Beasley scoring their only goal.

Stourpaine extended their lead in pole position to six points and remain unbeaten, following their 4-1 success against bottom placed visitors Poundbury Rovers.

Bere Regis beat visitors Swanage Town & Herston 6-1 with their goals from Jordan Parsons (2) and one each for Matt Elford, Glen Suttey, John Sanders and an own goal.

Weymouth Basketball

No Final for Bandits

Crediton Chargers 78

Weymouth Mission Fitness Bandits 67

WEYMOUTH Bandits took a road trip to Middlemore to face off against the Crediton Chargers for a semi-final cup.

The opening of the game saw Vitoldas Balciunas win the tip off allowing Ian Manley the game, but hard play on both ends of the court from both teams saw the score remain very close throughout.

Three straight points from Joel Franks followed by four free throws made by guard Craig Sorrell saw Weymouth end the opening quarter trailing by a point at 16-17.

The second quarter followed a similar pattern. Weymouth opened the scoring with Chris Canham getting his first points of the game, but once again for every point they scored, Crediton answered with points of their own.

The Bandits showed a change in defensive strategy attempting to stop points from coming from the inside, and while this tactic worked, it prompted the hosts to change up their own strategy which worked as they finished the quarter having scored three, three pointers.

Although Weymouth managed a three pointer at the end Crediton led 39-34 at half-time.

Weymouth were looking for a strong quarter to reduce the deficit, but unfortunately the beginning did not go as well planned as the Chargers scored eight points to Weymouth's two.

The next three minutes saw Weymouth spark their offence as they scored back-to-back points from Jake Kinder and Balciunas, but Crediton responded to score five unanswered points to lead 55-45 with a quarter to go.

The fourth quarter needed some huge plays cut the deficit to eight points. But then disaster struck as guard Kinder was forced to sit the remainder of the game through injury.

Manley scored eight points in the quarter, but once again Crediton found their rhythm and managed to maintain the lead throughout to move into the final.

MVP: Craig Sorrell

Scores/Roster: Craig Sorrell 19, Joel Franks 13, Ian Manley 10, Vitoldas Balciunas 11, Jake Kinder 7, Andy Steel 5, Chris Canham 2, Carl Carter.

U13 just edge thriller

Dorchester U13 20

Wessex Prep Schools 19

THIS was an excellent game between two well-matched sides which proved to be Dorchester's toughest test of the season but the squad came through with flying colours scoring four tries.

Most of the club matches played are considered to be training matches without too much stress being placed upon the final result; naturally this allows for varying levels of performance, commitment and concentration.

The tackling, rucking and especially the mauling were very well delivered. The ball handling was extremely good especially given the pressure applied by the opposition, resulting in tries by Fred Marsden, Zac Southall, Ed Martin and Taylor Moore.

This game could have gone either way, but it was exactly the type of test the squad needed before the next round of the Dorset Cup.

However this game required 100 per cent commitment and concentration which the whole squad delivered.

This game could have gone either way, but it was exactly the type of test the squad needed before the next round of the Dorset Cup.

Willsheire then beat Smallbone before Walden won his second set match with victory over Paul Marvell. Willsheire then beat Marvell to wrap up the tie, coming from a 0-11 handicap down to win 21-12, 21-16.

Wyke D beat Division Three rivals Budmouth E. April Heasman got Budmouth off to a great start by beating Rod Wyness 2-1, but Ian South drew Wyke level by beating Snigda Maganti before Rog Walden beat Harriet Pullen two straight. Maganti then beat Wyness to level the match up but consecutive leg wins from each of the Wyke team gave Wyke a 5-2 victory.

Budmouth D eased through to the last four with a 5-0 win over Springfield A. Will Jolliffe, Ethan Gear and Eddie Knell won their opening ties 2-0. Springfield's Steve Rook and Steve Rockett put up some resistance by taking Gear and Knell to three sets but couldn't stop them wrapping up the tie.

Budmouth D were joined in the semi finals by the youngsters from All Saints as they beat Preston A. Ben Hannigan and brothers Dan and Luke Dadds gave the youngsters a 3-0 lead. Eddie Chapman gave Preston their only point of the tie by defeating Hannigan in straight sets.

Dan Dadds then put All Saints within a point of victory with a win over Roger Lovell. The final match of the tie was played off scratch between Luke Dadds and Derrick Shillady.

The first set was shaded by Shillady but he lost out in an epic second 33-31 which gave Dadds the momentum to sew up a 21-17 final set victory and send his team through.

The semi final line-up sees Wyke D pitted against Budmouth D, whilst the youngsters of All Saints will look to upset the odds by beating Pilgrims A for a place in the final.

Depleted Pilgrims win through in Cup

THE semi-finals of the Weymouth and District Handicap Cup will be contested by Division One's only remaining survivor, Pilgrims A, and the top three teams from Division Three, Wyke D, Budmouth D and All Saints.

Pilgrims A overcame Springfield B despite only having two players on the night. Richard Willsheire and Stuart Walden put the Division One side 2-0 up with almost identical straight set wins over Mike Richardson and Angela Smallbone.

Willsheire then beat Smallbone before Walden won his second set match with victory over Paul Marvell. Willsheire then beat Marvell to wrap up the tie, coming from a 0-11 handicap down to win 21-12, 21-16.

Hockey

Thompson screamer earns Hawks a point

Sidm'th & Ottery A 2 West Dorset Hawks 2
 THIRD placed West Dorset Hawks head Sidmouth & Ottery on goal difference only and at the end they were still locked together after a terrific game of high quality hockey.

The West Dorset team welcomed captain Rick Dormor back after injury, but he substituted himself off for the first quarter, allowing the midfield of Dan Wyatt, Alex Davis, Rick Steele and Rusty Coombes, to work out their markers in preparation for the first onslaught from their hosts.

The hosts kept the pressure on the Hawks in the early exchanges, but eventually the visitors organised themselves to cover their offences.

Steve Mearing normally an out and out striker helped the midfield to mark their link pin player in the middle, which did however hamper his attacking options.

The stalemate was broken after striker Mike Thompson threaded a ball through to Rusty Coombes who beat one defender before slotting the ball into the corner.

Sid & Otter always looked dangerous though, and before long they equalised – slotting the ball past keeper Tom Lowe who had no chance.

After the break Dan Wyatt watched from the sideline for the third quarter, while the home defence continued to make it difficult for the home team, but the pressure of some fast movement opened them up again to score another classy goal to take the lead.

It was a great game of hard fought hockey and it was going to need a moment of brilliance to earn West Dorset a point. And that was what transpired when Thompson managed to engineer a brilliant reverse goal out of nothing inside their D to level the scores.

Skipper Dormor said: "It was a superb game, every player played well, but a special mention should go to the forwards; Steve Mearing and Mike Thompson."

Depleted but victorious

West Dorset A 3 Taunton Vale D 0

IT was only at the 11th hour that West Dorset A managed to put a team together due to injuries and player unavailability against South East 2 league strugglers Taunton Vale D.

As a result it took much of the first half for players to settle and there was little to choose between the two sides in the opening exchanges.

The visitors were mostly reliant on absorbing West Dorset pressure and trying to catch them on the break.

However the home side started to enjoy more of the possession as the half wore on and created the better chances.

They took the lead after 20 minutes. Jason Larcombe fed the ball to Simon Wakely who worked himself a bit of space on the edge of the area before driving a fierce shot into the goal for a half-time lead.

At the interval a call for a bit more attacking width and player movement in the second-half paid dividends immediately and within a minute of the restart the hosts doubled their lead.

John Kellas was left unmarked in front of goal and managed to flick the ball over the keeper into the net after his first shot was saved.

This settled the hosts and they began to control proceedings with Andrew Frampton and Wakely dominating in midfield.

Taunton Vale did occasionally threaten on the break, but West Dorset keeper Lee Herrod was rarely troubled with the defence of Julian May, Giles Maltby, Henry Middleton and Rob Cox keeping the visitors at bay.

As the half wore on, West Dorset were finding more and more space and winning a lot of short corners and it was from one of these that they put the result beyond doubt with 10 minutes remaining.

Kellas' initial shot was saved, but Rich Wilson was able to put the ball into the middle of the 'D' where Middleton was unmarked and fired the ball low through a group of players and into the corner to complete the scoring.

Captain Middleton said: "Once we got our noses in front I felt that we were mostly in control although we had a few scares.

"It was difficult putting a team together this week and rookie Darren Cook was given his full debut.

"Thanks again to regular umpires Dave Foot and Mike May."

Beaminster toll

Gillingham 2nd 1 Beaminster 2

BEAMINSTER made hard work of beating bottom Gillingham 2nd's, although to be fair there is little to choose between all the teams bar leaders Yeovil & Sherborne 2nd's.

Beaminster, who for the first third of the season looked to be the weak link having won only one point from their first six games, drew level on points with second placed Bournemouth 3rd's with this win, their seventh in eight following the return of several experienced players from injury.

However, they should have won by more had they taken their chances.

Despite a lot of early possession Beaminster rarely threatened the home goal although Phoebe Stewart's relentless closing down ensured Gillingham had little time on the ball.

They eventually found the net midway through the half when Julia May's cut back from the byline found Genna Bunker who slotted the ball into the net.

Gillingham responded with some pressure of their own and with an experienced midfield and strong young runners up front they forced Beaminster to adjust their shape to ensure they didn't get back in the game through quick counter-attacks.

The changes worked and five minutes after the interval, Beaminster doubled the advantage when May committed the keeper before giving Andrea Thomas a simple tap in.

With so much possession, Beaminster became a little lazy and failed to play their normal attacking game which gave Gillingham chances to counter, although stand-in keeper Sarah Davies wasn't called upon until midway through half.

Finally the hosts' persistence paid off and they pierced the Beaminster defence with a one-on-one which was converted.

This left Beaminster a nervy 15 minutes but they still had a short corner cleared off the line and forced the home keeper into a couple of good saves.

Once again this was a good team performance and beside Phoebe Stewart's excellent play, credit to Iris Garcia and Hattie Stewart for keeping their width down the wings and stretching the home defence.

Swans prove too strong for Blues

Swanage & Wareham 2nd 34 Bridport 0

SWANAGE & WAREHAM won handsomely when they visited Bridport back in October and started this match full of confidence.

Bridport were missing several key players and fielded a slightly makeshift team, but in the end gave the hosts a decent contest, despite the final score line.

The hosts had nearly all the possession and territory in the first half and were rewarded with two converted tries and a penalty to lead 17-0. That they didn't have more, says much for Bridport's wholehearted defence exemplified by Jason Kidd standing in at fly-half.

The Swans conceded a number of penalties, but the only kickable one was missed and the few attacks launched by the visitor's came to nothing.

The second half followed much the same vein with the hosts adding a further 17 points via three tries, one of which was converted.

Unsurprisingly given that they were continually on the back foot, Bridport were guilty of missing a few tackles towards the end, but at no time did they give up.

Only once or twice did they have a sniff of the opposition's try line, but the defence was too solid and nothing came of it.

Bridport are home to Weymouth & Portland next Saturday.

Sidmouth U12 35 Bridport 12

THE was hardly a game to remember for Bridport who took to the field with only nine players. With large squad, Sidmouth generously lent four players to keep the game on.

It was heartening to see the boys try and defend the running lines of Sidmouth but with players missing in key positions the task was too overwhelming, and with three quick tries from Sidmouth the game was lost in the first ten minutes.

At 25-0 Bridport played a much better second half, scoring two tries from Finlay Shoemark and Seth Furner. This was then answered by two from Sidmouth but the boys worked hard to prevent the floodgates opening.

Under 11s

AGAINST a well trained Sidmouth squad of fifteen players, Bridport needed to be at full strength, but the absence of captain George Found, and the late arrival of demon tackler Toby Gale meant that Bridport were hesitant, and at half time were losing five tries to nil.

Realising that only teamwork and tackling would stop the floodgates opening, Bridport began to play, and they put Oliver Hansford-Harvey over the try line. However two tries in reply meant Sidmouth won the first 20 minute game 7-1.

The second game was completely different. After a quick Sidmouth try, James Clatworthy began to get the hang of the fly-half position, and the arrival of Toby Gale, invigorated the tackling.

Daniel Smith set an example by driving 12 metres with three of the opposition trying to hold him back, and Araminta Smith playing the full 40 minutes, began to snipe behind the scrum.

Hansford-Harvey was again put through by Clatworthy, but a tiring Bridport let in two late tries to lose the game 3-1.

If Bridport's small but effective squad was reinforced with new recruits, this game could have been won, and therefore reader's are asked to look out for likely young Under 11s who would warm to rugby.

Training is every Wednesday 5pm till 6pm at the club ground by the Leisure Centre.

Sidmouth U9 15 Bridport 9

BRIDPORT played Sidmouth earlier in the season and had been thoroughly outplayed, but not this time.

Sidmouth did win again, by 15 tries to nine, but were given a much sterner examination, something acknowledged by the opposition coaches who were full of praise for the progress made by Bridport's young players.

Some of Bridport's tackling was exceptional, led by Player of the Match Stanley Cooper and Charles Edwards. There were also some great offloads and a willingness to keep the ball moving.

Try scorers were Barney Johnson (2), Edwards (3), Dom Burdett and Cooper (3).

Bees news

Pitch bogs down Bridport's title bid

WIMBORNE U15 3 BRIDPORT 3

A LATE switch of grounds to Holt United found Bridport playing on a pitch with a middle section that resembled a ploughed field.

This forced the Bees to play a long ball game which suited the home style, and although Bridport took the lead through a well taken Tom Hyde goal, they could not take advantage of having most of the possession.

A series of errors by the Bees all over the pitch saw the visitors trailing 3-1 at half time, but a team talk and reshuffle saw Bridport come out in more determined style in the second half with a plan to bypass the poor area of the pitch.

A poor tackle on Sam Handyside that Bridport felt deserved a straight red card instead of the yellow issued galvanised the team to new levels and another goal from Hyde and one from Cody Bowditch saw Bridport equalise.

They could have gone on to win but were denied who by a number of good saves from the home keeper.

But a share of the points was a fair result for both teams, on a day when the only winner was the pitch.

Bridport currently top the table with 29 points from 11 games, a point ahead of Portland United who have completed their fixtures.

Two of Bridport's three remaining games are against Shaftesbury Rockies who are two points behind also with three games to play, so the games next Sunday in North Dorset, and at Bridport on February 22nd look to be title deciders.

Bridport hold league leaders Hamworthy Utd U18 0 Bridport 0

LACKING reliable home facilities, Bridport Youth travelled to league leaders Hamworthy having not played a match for six weeks, and the visitors could have been forgiven for approaching the match with some trepidation.

Such fears were dispelled seconds after kick off when Bridport's Jonah Ayunga attempted an audacious long range shot that almost caught the home keeper off guard.

From that moment on the game was an end-to-end battle that, despite the final score line, was a thrilling spectacle.

The visitors pressed hard and striker Sam Tabner thought he had scored but the Hamworthy keeper just managed to tip the ball out of the top corner.

At the other end Bridport's Adam Hoskins twice made brave saves at the feet of the home attack.

In the last quarter Bridport were in the ascendancy and Dan Holt saw his shot beat the keeper only to be cleared off the line by a defender and, as Hamworthy failed to clear, Rhys Hayter fizzed a shot that flew inches over the bar.

As the hosts countered it was Hoskins again who was Bridport's hero, going full length to palm a goal bound shot away.

Bridport Manager Terry Warren said: "From a neutrals point of view it was a great match to watch."

"Having not played for so long I was worried about match fitness but despite a few lads going down with cramp, they all gave it 100 percent."

Bowls - Bridport & West Dorset Club

Brilliant performance to close Wessex League season

BRIDPORT & West Dorset Indoor Bowls Club's men's team ended their Wessex League programme with another brilliant performance beating MOONFLEET 81-71 overall to finish the season with three victories.

Picking up 12 of the 16 available points, Dave Roberts, Keith Jenkins, Phil Hedges and Bob Taylor had a superb 26-16 win at WEYMOUTH, although Barry Mapson, Brian Walsh, Martin Grier and Chris Thorne lost a last end shoot out 16-17.

At home Max Dare, Brian Galpin, Brian Rumble and Ivor Parker won 27-13, whilst Mel Griffiths, Mike Craddock, Paul Tibble and Brian Conisbee went down 10-11 to win 24-16 to pick up six of the eight points available.

best ever

Spokesperson Brian Baker added this is the club's best result in this prestigious league, and great credit must go to the captain Chris Thorne who has had to reshape the side from last season after the loss of several players.

Pamela Daters, Lyn Craddock, Ann

Turtell and Margaret Pestelle were the stars for the ladies in the County League against DOLPHIN (Poole), coming from 10-11 down to win 24-16 to pick up six of the eight points available.

Francis Hewett, Ann Parkins, Laura Taylor and Pat Cornick just missed out on the final two points as their opponents finished 2,2 to win 22-17.

At BOURNEMOUTH, Craddock, Millie Meech, Taylor and Cornick had a fine 22-16 win, a late six count seeing them home for another two points.

Captain Mel Griffiths was on great form for Bridport's B team in the Purbeck Trophy League along with Chris Everest and Brian Walsh as they won 17-13 at BOURNEMOUTH for six points.

Barry Mapson, Mike Craddock and Peter Hunt did their bit for the overall win a late five count saw them lose narrowly 14-16.

With Brian Baker and Mike Higman, Griffiths was again in inspirational form to secure a point against Wellworthy in a 13-13 finish.

Lyme Regis Golf

Mail on Sunday double delight

By Richard Jackman

IN round three of the Winter League Simon Brown's well grafted 37 points was just good enough, on count-back, to beat Steve Piper who continued his recent run of good form, while Chris Browne finished 3rd with 36 points.

Although ladies day again fell foul of the weather, the Mail on Sunday competition a home draw against Cricket St Thomas proved a challenge as all matches went to the last few holes.

Lyme Regis won through with a 5-0 clean sweep, so congratulations go to Melissa McMahon, Jane Southcombe, Jenny Scott, Caroline Baker and Rosie Jackman.

The men also played their Mail on Sunday match against Sidmouth and the blend of juniors George Seed and David Lyon and the more mature heads of Adrian Morgan, David Fidge and Mark Lewis won 3 1/2 to 1 1/2.

Jermyn warns of complacency after super win

DESPITE producing the performance of the season in beating Hungerford Town on Saturday, manager Mark Jermyn insisted his players need to keep their feet on the ground.

The win was the first under Jermyn, but he won't be getting carried away by the result which lifts the Magpies clear of the relegation zone, with the home game against fellow strugglers Arlesey last night firmly in his sights.

He said: "We won't be taking the Arlesey game lightly, and in a way it will be mentally tougher as we will be expected to win, given their league position and our momentum."

"But that is not the case. It's not the way I want our players to work; I want them to take each game as they come."

"We are trying to build stability in our results and as I said last week we were unfortunate not to get something out of the trip to Truro. This week we got a good result, but it's important we get something out of Tuesday."

Jermyn said: "We were so dominant in the first half they couldn't really get out and it was inevitable we would score at some point, and I don't think they could have complained had we gone in at the break three or four up."

"They changed their shape to try and counter us, but we matched them and the biggest compliment I think was from their manager Bobby Wilkinson, who said not many teams beat them tactically, and that's something we did very well."

The new boss felt his players deserved a lot of credit for the way they have turned their game around.

"I know the players have had a lot of flack over the last few months because of performances but now they need to receive the plaudits because they were fantastic, as they were against Truro and Banbury the week before."

"I think it's the organisation and everyone knowing what they have to do. The lads are taking on board what we have asked them and as long as they continue to buy into it we will be okay."

Jermyn known for his energy and never say die attitude on the pitch had a warning for his players though.

"One thing I will not accept however is a drop in performance levels. Everyone is going to make mistakes, that's not a concern; what is are performance levels, and if people can give that week in, week out, we won't be far away."

The county town boss was also pleased with Tarbuck's debut. "He had a great start for us."

"I'm not in favour usually of playing people I have not seen play before, but I received four reviews who all said he was a good player who could add something to our team, which he really did with that extra little bit of quality and pace which enabled us to drive the game to them. He looked very comfortable and ensured me he enjoyed it, which is the main thing."

One thing Jermyn will be impressing on his players after chances to add to the score went begging on Saturday, is the need to improve their goal difference.

"I was at Dorchester when it came down to the wire and Tom Mitchell's goal in the last game of the season saved us from relegation, and I don't want that happening again."

"So we need to be a little more clinical in front of goal. It's all very well winning but we need to take our chances to improve our goal difference."

He finished on a positive note by saying: "We're looking up now rather than across or down."

"Everyone appears to have bought into it, and even the boys that came off the bench got into their jobs straight away."

"Not results but performance wise, we have been good and there's a good spirit among the team. Everyone appears refreshed a bit and there's a feel-good factor around the club."
